Heading home after visit to Bangladesh where you are remembered with great affection and where they are eager to have you make a return visit.

It was a reunion for me in many ways -- the experiences from '95 still vivid, and it was a positive message that I came back!

Our amb there is terrific. (Moriarty). He's going to keep close tabs on the situation. The sum of all this seems to be political. It's so sad.

I'll give you a fuller readout on this and the trip more generally.
